

Charles Adams Gray

October 31, 1940 - June 9, 2022

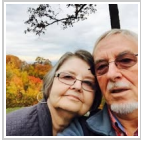

Charles Adams Gray, 81, Hwy 13 North, passed away Friday at Wayne UNC Health Care.

He was a native of Johnston County and the son of the late Alice Bell Stephen Gray and Clem Adams Gray.

He is survived by daughter, Ragen Gray Hamane (Jason) of Fayetteville; son, Chris Gray of St. Augustine, FL; sister, Carolyn Gray Johnson of Midlothian, VA; stepmother, Inez Vail of Goldsboro; stepsister, Pamela Hill Boyette (Tony) of Goldsboro, and Darlene Wilkerson (Mike) of Pikeville; stepbrother, Keith Vail of Pikeville; and very special friend, D. J. of Myrtle Beach, SC.

Graveside service will be held at 1:00 pm Monday at Selma Memorial Garden. The family will receive friends Sunday at Evergreen Funeral Home from 3:00 pm-4:30 pm.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles lived across the street from me in Selma with his sister Carolyn. I remember the whole family well but I left Selma 40 years ago and lost contact with everyone. I remember when I was in elementary school and Charles was driving to school, he would let me ride with him to school. May he rest in peace.

Lee Denise - July 20, 2022 at 04:07 PM

BC

“ it was a pleasure to have known you, peace

Brown Carol - July 13, 2022 at 12:00 AM

MI

“ Ragen and Chris....im so very sorry to hear about your dad...you both will be in my thoughts and prayers. Your dad was one of kind and I was lucky enough to know him I know that he will be missed by so many!

Michelle - July 13, 2022 at 12:00 AM

MT

“ You were a true friend and will certainly be missed. Rest in peace

Manly Turner - July 13, 2022 at 12:00 AM

TF

“ Sending my deepest condolences to Ragen and Chris. Mr. Gray always held a special place in my heart. Sending you healing during this difficult time.

Tiffany Horne de Faria - July 13, 2022 at 12:00 AM