

Eleanor Dawson Pope

June 3, 1929 - October 20, 2019

Goldsboro – Eleanor Dawson Pope, 90, went to her heavenly home on Sunday surrounded by family and loved ones at Kitty Askins Hospice Center.

Family will receive family and friends on held Wednesday, October 23, 2019 at New Hope Friends Meeting, 4451 US HWY 70 East from 6 pm to 7 pm. A funeral service celebrating Eleanor's life will follow the visitation at 7 pm at the church. The interment will be in Evergreen Memorial Cemetery, 3888 HWY 70 West, Goldsboro, at 1 pm, Thursday October 24, 2019. Reverend Bill Garner will officiate.

She was survived by her two sons, Eugene Pope, and Jackie Pope and friend Tish Byerly of Goldsboro; her daughter Laura Gurley of LaGrange; grandchildren, Kelli Gurley Hamm and husband Michael, and William Chad Gurley and wife Jessica; great grandchildren Miles Hamm, Caroline Hamm, Reagan Gurley, and Gray Gurley; and many special nieces and nephews.

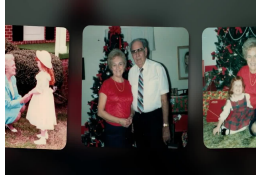

Eleanor was born in Wayne County to the late Florence Rouse Dawson and Joseph Benjamin Dawson. She was an active member of the New Hope Friends Meeting where she sang alto in the choir and did all that she could to serve in her church. She retired as a business professional after operating the NC Department of Motor Vehicles, License Plate Agency and the book keeper for Wilber's BBQ.

The family request that memorials be made to New Hope Friends Meeting, of Goldsboro and/or Community Homecare and Hospice, of Goldsboro.
