GOLDSBORO

Evangeline B. Davis, 89, it is with tender hands of compassion and genuine hearts of love that her family was with her until her peaceful transition on Thursday.

Mrs. Davis retired with 49 years of service to her community as a note teller with the Goldsboro Branch Bank and Trust Co., Princeton Branch Bank and Trust Co., the Credit Union in Goldsboro, and J.M. Edgerton & Son International Equipment company. She was also a member of The First Church Goldsboro for more than 30 years serving in The Judgement House annually in the prayer room. Prior to this, she assisted her husband in teaching Sunday School at Free Chapel Church in Goldsboro, and she volunteered more than 50 years at local nursing homes.

Surviving is her husband, Royce G. Davis (married 65 ½ years), daughters, Dee Ann Harmon and her husband Al Harmon of Locust Grove, GA, Terry Davis Moulton and her husband Scott Moulton of Springfield, TN. Her grandchildren; Victoria Harmon of Alpharetta, GA, Caroline Harmon of Plant City, FL, Alisa Harmon of Locust Grove, GA, Andrew Moulton of Cookeville, TN, and Samuel Moulton of Springfield, TN.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mattie Blanche Godwin and Clement Huntley Bunn, a brother, Clement Harrell Bunn and a grandchild,

Thomas Hunter Moulton.

Funeral service will be Wednesday (Feb. 24th) at 2 P M in Evergreen Funeral Chapel with Rev. Bill Rose and Associate Pastor, John Howard officiating. The committal will follow the service at Evergreen Cemetery.

The family will greet friends and other family members as they enter for the service.

In Lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory, to The First Church (1100 The 1st Church Rd, Goldsboro, NC 27534) or Community Home Care and Hospice (2309 Wayne Memorial Drive, Goldsboro, NC 27534).
