“ I always enjoyed sharing a laugh with Luby. He loved to make people laugh as he told his stories. He was a lifelong friend. He always came into the office smiling and jovial, with candy to spare. He will be sorely missed. 🙏

“ I was saddened to see that Mr. Luby has passed. I sure will miss seeing him around town, especially on Saturday mornings at Eagletown. He always made sure to share his butterscotch candies. I keep a cross and a small Jesus statue in my vehicle that he gave me. As I look at them daily, I will keep Mr. Luby in my thoughts. Prayers for his family.

“ Uncle Clifton, I respected and loved you. Mama thought a lot of you. I remember your Coon Dogs and blood hounds. I remember the times at the pond when Papa and I would go fishing and drop gigging. We had a few good times. A few good memories. Rest easy now. Say hello to all my family members there in heaven.
