“ I cannot believe what I am reading right now! I have been trying to get in touch with him for the past week because he always kept in touch with me and kept me updated on his health and when I tried to contact him his phone was off his messages weren't going through and I had a bad feeling. We met in pharmacy tech school back in the 90s and called each other hubby and wife and I'm just absolutely devastated. My heart goes out to his family! Especially his mother! Rest in peace hubby I love you

“ I knew Mike through my wife Christine Posusney. They worked together at Walgreens in NJ for 12 years. Mike was a great guy who would do anything to help Christine out no matter what time of day it was. Mike was funny and helped us move from our condo to our first house. Mike was also at our wedding in NJ. Rest in peace Mike as we just found out of your passing. God bless you.

I hired Mike at Walgreens to be my pharmacy tech back in 2005. I'll never forget his smile when he walked in for the interview wearing his black EMT jacket. Mike was like a big brother to me. Always there for advice and to make me smile. He would give me dating advice and approve or disapprove who I introduced him too. He had the opportunity to meet my husband and attend my wedding. Mike was an incredible soul and would go out of his way to help anyone he could. His passing is an absolute tragedy. We stayed in touch since he moved out of NJ but I missed seeing him very much. Rest in peace my dear friend. Heaven has gained another angel and I hope you remember me still when we meet again. Love you.

“ Well this one hit me hard. Michael you will be truly missed but never forgotten my friend. As for our last conversation, NO!, I will not be returning to Walgreens, I already know it will not feel the same without you being there. Walking by in the A.M saying "MI what's up boo boo" then handing me a piece of hard candy. Saying or doing something to make me laugh before walking off. Hanging out downtown Goldsboro, the random check up calls . It was my pleasure and my blessing to get the chance to meet you. Until we meet again my friend.
