“ Aunt Peggy was so much more than just an aunt. To many of us nieces, nephews and cousins, she was a mother figure and a shoulder to lean on always there with hug and kiss and even a loving scolding when needed. She was a kind hearted lady that was always there and willing to help whether it was words of wisdom or a helping hand. She was the glue that held our family together as our numbers have dwindled over the years. Although she may have had strong opinions, she often shared life lessons as well with her words.

Aunt Peggy loved her Lord. She lived her life openly speaking her truth and faith in God.

Always willing to share her faith with others. We know she is walking with Christ now as well as the loving circle of family that have been waiting for her arrival.

She will be greatly missed here but we know she is now watching over all of us from her new heavenly home as she always has here with love.

RIP MaPeggy ❤️

“ Aunt Peggy was one of the most generous and selfless ladies I've ever had the honor to know. She was always there for everyone in our family as well as those she encountered. Though she could be outspoken with her opinions at times, her words often had life lessons that greatly affected many. She was the glue that held our family together. Always there when needed in an encouraging word or a helping hand. She was much much more to us than just another aunt. She was a mother figure that definitely helped shape us into the adults we are. She loved her Lord and wasn't ashamed to speak her truth so others could know the love of Christ. We know for sure she's with our Lord in Heaven. Peggy will be greatly missed but we look forward to seeing her one day again along with the rest of that beautiful loving circle of family we love so deeply. RIP MaPeggy ❤️
