

Phyllis Ann Schaeffer

March 5, 1930 - February 16, 2017

Phyllis A. Schaeffer passed away Thursday morning at Wayne Memorial Hospital with her family by her side.

Surviving are her daughters; Lynda Shindley of Big Lake, Minnesota, Sue Schaeffer of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Bobbie Broughton of LaGrange and Anna Schaeffer of Goldsboro and son; John McCorkle of Palmetto, Georgia. Her sisters; Leigh Acord of Nebraska and Lois Udema of Colorado. Also, 12 grandchildren, 7 great-grandchildren and 1 great great grandchild.

Mrs. Schaeffer was born in Elkhart, Illinois and was preceded in death by her beloved husband Robert Bernardie Schaeffer, her parents; Edna Hedger Johnson and Elmer Johnson, a son Phillip M. Schaeffer and great-grandson; Manning Carapia.

Mrs. Schaeffer enjoyed being the wife of a Chief Master Sergeant in the Air Force and traveling from base to base living in different parts of the United States. Out of all of the bases she lived, Pease Air Force Base in New Hampshire was her favorite. She loved being a mother, cooking and especially her church and church family at Stevens Chapel.
